KEELBOAT NEWS

Winter Frostbite Series 2019

Thank you to Robert Jeffery, Wilma Poland, Jacquie Hocking and Wally Giles for doing Start box duties for the Frostbites. Without these hard working volunteers our sailors could not go out and race on the beautiful Swan River.

We were a bit unlucky during this winter series, in that the weather was not kind to us, with it either being very windy and rainy or no wind at all. That combined with a reduced number of yachts left us with only a few races where there were more than 3 competitors. The lasers were a little scarce as well over the winter months as well. Hopefully you are all just resting up and are ready for the Summer Season to start.

On Sunday 15th September we had the most boats out, with 5 going around the long twilight course. Leading the way was Kyzo Too skippered by Colin Hughes, followed by Andalusia skippered by Chris Cochrane. Next around the course was Todd Whitfield and Catherine on Paprika and Arthur Poland and Ann on Beaujolais.

Due to a late start and family commitments, the good ship Beagle with the Boykett Clan and friends went around the course and brought up the rear. I believe that they were celebrating a certain matriarch's birthday and that is why they were a little tardy. Happy Birthday Sylvia.

There was a lot of frivolity and fun in the bar after the race, with RCS Richie Boykett announcing the results. Colin and crew on Kyzo Too took out First and fastest, with Beaujolais in second place and Andalusia in third place on handicap. So that is the end of the winter series for another year. Looking forward to the Summer season.
